

AHMEDNAGAR JILHA MARATHA VIDYA PRASARAK SAMAJ'S

SHRI MULIKADEVI COLLEGE, NIGHOJ

TAL.PARNER, DIST.AHMEDNAGAR

Department of Political Science

Course Outcomes

Program Offered:

Sr. No.	Program	Program objectives	Program specific objective
1	B.A. Political Science	The main aim of teaching Political science is to help individuals develop into responsible, critical, reflective and productive citizens. Student's will be able to develop a critical understanding about the nature and philosophy of political science and it's interface with Society.	To increase awareness of career options available with an undergraduate degree in political science; its utility in the public and private sectors; and its value as entry into a range of graduate programs, teaching positions, and legal education.

Course offered:

Sr. No.	Course	Course Outcomes
1	F.Y.B.A. Pol - 110- Introduction to Indian Constitution. (G-1)	I. To introduce the students to the basic concepts in Indian Politics. II. To introduce latest concepts in Indian Politics. III. It emphasizes on local influence that derive from social stratification of cast, religion, ethic and critically assesses its impact on the political Process. IV. To Introduced the students legislative Council, Executive Council, Judiciary Council.
2	S.Y.B.A. Pol 210: Political Theory And Concepts (G2)	I. To introduce the students to the system's Analysis, structural Functionalism. II. To understand the nature and scope of political Theory. III. Student will develop on understanding of core political science concepts and theories within multiple disciplinary.

		IV. Critique a contemporary conflict in terms of the theories and concepts exposed to in the course.
3	Pol - 220-Westren Political Thinkers (S-1)	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> I. Tracing the evolution of Indian Political thought from ancient India to Modern India. II. This Course examines major texts in the history of Political thought. III. In this course, we examine major texts in western political thought. IV. To understand the relationship between religion and politics in early modern western.
4	Pol - 201- Political Sociology (S-2)	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> I. This course is concerned with the way in which political arrangements depend on social organizations and cultural values. II. Its defined how the state is examined in the liberal Approach. III. To provide a broad introduction to the rich research about civil society, citizens, culture. IV. It is important because it exists mainly to better society as a whole, understanding the political system is important in order to make informed decisions.
5	T.Y.B.A. POL .: 310 Political Ideology (G-3)	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> I. To examine and analyse the conditions that create the rise of ideologies. II. Apply their knowledge of ideologies to current political issues. III. To interpret and analyse political ideologies as they apply to modern political problems. IV. This course examines those political ideologies that continue to shape political experience worldwide. V. This course is helpful in achieving all learning outcomes for the political science.
6	POL -320: Public Administration (S-3)	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> I. Students should be able to demonstrate broad understanding of public affairs, policy development. II. Student's will participate in and contribute to the policy process. III. Students will be able to analyse, synthesize, think critically, solve problems, and make decisions. IV. Students will be able to lead and manage in public governance to manage diversity issues within an organizational framework. Identify major issues in today's public and private institutions.

7	Pol . 301: International Politics (S-4)	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> I. To analyse and explain contemporary international phenomena, including identifying and assessing the positions and interests of key international subjects, drawing on theoretical insights from more than one discipline. II. To understand the decisions human beings make in political settings, including those regarding the forms of government available and understand the philosophical understanding. III. BE able to identify the difference between major political parties in the country and how the electoral process functions. IV. TO understand the fundamental concepts, issues and theories central to comparative politics and International Politics.

